FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIA!

New York, July 29.—With comparatively few exceptions, prices on the New York stock exchange moved to higher ground in today's brief session, reflecting the financial community's belief that the end of the coal and rail strikes is near. Trading was quiet, the day's raies approximating 255,000 shares.

Rails were again the dominant factor, registering gains of large fractions to 15.15
